

Back-to-School Bandwidth

School laptops are back in action again. Make sure your home network bandwidth is up to the task.

In areas where the fiber plant conversion is complete, speeds up to 500MB are available—and with a dedicated fiber strand deployment, you don't share your bandwidth with anyone else.

Is Your Router Leaving You?

Frequent router reboots to restore Internet service is a sign that your router may be on the way out; and the next time you reboot, it might not come back.

Don't get caught without Internet at the worst possible time. Available for purchase or monthly rental, the Smart-RG commercial grade router from the telephone company can handle your subscribed bandwidth and device connection load.

Best of all, our technicians will provision the Smart-RG for you for a hassle-free router upgrade. Call soon!
